Pastor's Report - Fr. Valencheck

- Has meeting with architect this week to discuss potential renovations.
- Parents are able to attend mass again.
- Meeting with Perkins home development, Residences at Good Park. Ground breaking next month. Should not affect St. Sebastian. 15 year tax abatement for the homeowner. Townhouses, single family dwelling and larger homes. Townhouse starts at $215,000 for one bedroom.
- Byrider Hall discussion about kids crossing the street. Try and build partnership with developers. Walking paths will be included.
- Plaster damage on inside of church from ice. Will be fixed after winter. Tar paper beginning to fail.
- Parishioners are being asked to complete a survey. Will be held on two Wednesdays.
- Parishioner is trying to move into the neighborhood but having problems finding a house. She would like to start program to help special needs children at St. Julie Billard's to receive the sacraments.
- Another bid for back drive that is lower.

Old Business

- Nominations - only a few nominations have been received. Several Council Members said they have submitted names.
- Decided to extend deadline to March 18 and then start vetting process. Will place nomination forms in the pews with pencils. Jennie at 11, Jim at 9, Natalie at 4:30 and Ivan at 1.
- Donut Sunday next weekend and have nomination forms there.
- March 25 hopefully have short list of candidates
- Spectacular needs volunteers to help. Link sent out. Tickets are still available too.
- 100th anniversary - Asked Lynn to put a CD together for the anniversary. Possibly sell. Need approval of Parish Council because she would need to have professional assist in putting it together. Contact the University to see if anyone would be interested. Plan a pilgrimage trip. Bottle caps are being collected to make it into a bench. Needs 500 pounds.

- Ivan called stewardship parish in Indian and is waiting for a call back.

New Business

- Maybe provide encouragement to collect pull tabs for donations to charities.
